

Danladi Ibrahim Esq.

Ag. Managing Director / CEO, National Inland Waterways Authority, Nigeria.

Danladi Ibrahim Esq. is currently the Acting Managing Director/CEO of the Nigerian National Inland Waterways Authority (NIWA). Before his appointment as the acting Managing Director, he was the General Manager Legal Services as well as the Company Secretary of the Organization. He has served in numerous Ministerial Committees on Legal, Constitutional and Administrative matters on Maritime affairs at the Federal Ministry of Transportation from 2003 to date. Barrister Danladi has worked and rose through the ranks at the National Inland Waterways Authority for over twenty years. He is a recognized professional in the Nigerian Legal Environment and has attended several workshops, seminars and many other skills development programmes on Legal matters in United Kingdom (UK), the United States of America (USA) and the 13th session of the International Bar Association annual International Conference on Private Investment Funds held in London (2012). He was a member of the Nigerian Delegation at the Legal Committee and General council meeting of the International Maritime Organization (IMO) held in London 2014. Barrister Danladi is a member of the Nigerian Bar Association. He had Bachelor of Law L. L. B. (Hons) in 1988, Barrister at Law (BL) in 1989 and a Masters degree in Public Administration in 1997 from the University of Lagos. Born on 9th September 1963 (Aged 54 years). He is blessedly married with children.