

Geoffroy Caude

President of the World Association for Waterborne Transport Infrastructure (PIANC)

Permanent member of the High Council for Environment and Sustainable Development in the transport division since 2015 and international president of PIANC since 2011 (The World Association of Waterborne Transport Infrastructure), Geoffroy Caude has acted mainly at an operations level in the inland navigation field (French navigation service North-East in Nancy and deputy director at the Transportation Ministry successively for waterways and for economic and international affairs for the land transportation) and in the port sector (operations and equipment manager at port of Le Havre, general secretary of the association of French ports), as well as for the scientific and technical understanding of the waterborne transport sector as general manager of the French National Institute for maritime and inland navigation studies (CETMEF) between 1999 and 2009.