

Petar Margic

Director General of the Secretariat of the Danube Commission

Studied at the Faculty for International Trade in Zagreb and the Nautical Department of the Faculty of Maritime Studies in Rijeka. Danube Commission awarded him the gold “Commemorative Medal for promoting the development of river navigation on the Danube”. He became the first European captain with certificates for independent vessel navigation on two largest river basins in Europe (the Rhine and the Danube river basins).

Member of the European Commission Expert Group “EC CEG on professional qualifications and training standards in inland navigation”.

He was previously a counsellor for nautical issues in the Secretariat of the Danube Commission, representing the Republic of Croatia.

Petar Margic received the Doctor Honoris Causa honorary title of Nikola Y. Vaptsarov Naval Academy on 14.10.2015.