

Peter Scherm

General Manager of EUROMOT

Manages the Association, governmental affairs and external communications as well as strategic support for the technical experts' groups. After receiving his PhD in organic and physical chemistry, he joined Unilever from 1992 to 1997, working in research and development of catalytic converters in Germany, the UK and the Netherlands. From 1997 to 2004 he was head of process and production development for automotive catalysts and key account manager for major European automotive companies at Engelhard Technologies in Germany.